

HGTV Design Star David Bromstad 'Arrives' at Green Builder's Depot

David Bromstad, winner of the "HGTV Design Star" competition and host of the popular "Color Splash With David Bromstad" TV show, can now add another job title to his resume: stand-up cardboard cutout. The nearly 6-foot cutout of the attractive celebrity interior designer arrived in Honolulu at Green Builder's Depot yesterday, and is a life-sized image of the real David Bromstad, who quickly gained fame and favor with audiences for repeatedly taking off his shirt during the HGTV Design Star TV show competition.

Bromstad is also the spokesperson for Mythic Paints, a premium non-toxic paint with zero VOC and zero carcinogens, whose brand is exclusively carried by Green Builder's Depot, Hawaii's first and only certified green building materials supplier, located at 550 Paiea Street near the airport.

"We're excited that David could join our team, in whatever shape or form," said Michael Reeves, vice president and founder of Green Builder's Depot. "He is undoubtedly very popular with some of our target customers and we hope they'll visit David at our store frequently."

The David Bromstad cutout (see inset) will be available for a meet-and-greet at the New Baby Expo this weekend at the Neal Blaisdell Center, Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Green Builder's Depot booth #318.

Established in 2009, Green Builder's Depot is Hawaii's first building supplier selling only sustainable products. Committed to making green building products and services easily accessible to commercial and residential customers, Green Builder's Depot provides the highest-quality certified green products at a competitive cost. For more information, please visit www.greenbuildersdepotintl.com.

The life-size cutout of David Bromstad, seen here, will feature this image of him at Green Builder's Depot and at the New Baby Expo this weekend.

Photo courtesy of Mythic Paints