sneak a peek star trees!

It's holiday time at the HGTV hosts' homes.

David's mini forest

“I grew up in Minnesota, but now I live in Miami, so I re-create my own white Christmas down here. I have 12 faux trees set up in my living room, and I decorate them with icicles and big snowballs, plus red and green ornaments on the largest one. It totally reminds me of home.”

—David Bromstad, HGTV Design Star
