David Bromstad's fantasy backyard

As any HGTV junkie can attest, designer and artist David Bromstad isn't one to play it safe. In fact, the backyard vignette that the Beach Flip host conjured up for the recent Dwell on Design Show in L.A. was nothing short of inspired, and earned a rep as the "must-see space" during the three-day design expo. I had the chance to tour Bromstad's whimsical outdoor teepees while on assignment for Canadian Living. Here's a peek!
