PACKING UP: HGTV interior design star David Bromstad has linked with accessories brand Kipling on a fall luggage collection inspired by vintage travel pieces. The ten designs, launching Tuesday, will come fabricated in three hand-drawn prints with distressed leather embellishments. Retail prices will range from $69 to $549.

Bromstad said of the collection: "I'm an avid traveler and believe every category but travel has been tapped into when it comes to fun, personal style. Kipling is special here. You know it's a Kipling bag as soon as you spot bright prints and a playful monkey keychain in a sea of dark, boring bags on a luggage cart. I knew Kipling would appreciate my design point of view and be a great partner."

The collection will be sold at Kipling stores, select Macy's and assorted specialty stores.
