RAMBLINGS: DAVID BROMSTAD

Along the road of my career and travels, I've been extremely fortunate to meet and work with an array of incredibly talented people. Ramblings is my way of picking their brain for more insight and juicy tidbits to share with you.

David Bromstad, the season one winner of HGTV's Design Star, is currently one of the hosts on HGTV's Color Splash. He is known for his endless energy and out-of-the-box thinking. David began his career as a design student at the Ringling School of Art and Design in Sarasota, Fla. Earnest, passionate, talented and innovative, Bromstad creates awe-inspiring works on many platforms, including custom art, furniture building and interior design. David says he "blends styles that incorporate realism and fantasy." He combines this approach with a love of color and practical advice that shows how to transform tired rooms into unique, vibrant spaces.

I've long been a fan of David since he appeared on Design Star and have been following him ever since!

David is making a presentation this Saturday at Eye on Design and I have 10 tickets to give away! To be entered into the contest, all you have to do is become a fan of Kelley Moore Creative Media on facebook or follow me on twitter.

I'll be picking the winners tomorrow!

What is your greatest extravagance?

My Mademoiselle Dolce & Gabbana chair by Philippe Starck.

What career would you pursue if you weren't doing what you do now?

A career that would involve fitness and health.

Which living person do you most admire?

My father
